Mr. Bartlett discovered that he could reinstate the mental, emotional, physical and spiritual balance within his patients simply by touching them lightly with focused intent. As an added extra, he can correct misalignments that had troubled some of his clients for numerous years. Richard discovered that he can teach anyone this particular technique that combines subtle energy along with active imagination, quantum physics and focused intent.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information in the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns in the resonating matrix could become transformed from emotional or physical injury. These disturbances could result in ingrained habits or perceptions which can block an individual from acquiring a state of prosperity, health, happiness and various constructive situations. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, shift these ingrained patterns and change core beliefs in order to enable the patient to attain their objectives to be able create the sort of life and quality of life preferred.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics think that preconceived notions of restrictions are the source of a person's issues and that these limitations could be eliminated right away through the healing system of Matrix Energetics. This particular healing system is believed to eliminate the causes of both temporary and chronic problems such as muscle spasms, scoliosis, fibromyalgia, emotional trauma and headaches among others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing method even if several practitioners utilize it in order to enhance several healing methods. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the customer and could transform her or his beliefs about the nature of disease, the healing process and the structure of reality. Commonly, recipients may feel a wave pass through their bodies since their previous view of realism is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Time and space are not a part of reality at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness could affect how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. As the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear everywhere at the same time and even move backward or forward in time. A person's consciousness can affect these quanta to alter emotions and physical matter. These views and this information have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are responsible for the shifts which happen on the cellular level within the client.
